

Cookies Policy

At Anax Capital Financial Markets LLC ("Anax Capital," "we," "us," or "our"), we use cookies and similar technologies to enhance your experience on our website, ensure seamless access to our services, and improve our offerings. This Cookies Policy explains how we use cookies, the types of cookies we use, and your rights regarding cookie management.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device (computer, smartphone, or tablet) when you visit a website. They help us recognize your device, remember your preferences, and provide you with a personalized experience.

Categories of Cookies We Use:

- Essential Cookies: These are necessary for the website's core functionality, allowing you to navigate the site, access your trading account, remember login credentials, and engage with customer support. Disabling these cookies may limit access to certain features of our platform.
- Analytical Cookies: These cookies help us analyze website traffic and user interactions, enabling us to refine and optimize our services to better suit your preferences.
- Marketing Cookies: These facilitate targeted advertising by providing relevant information to visitors on external platforms and measuring the success of our marketing campaigns. We follow industry standards in managing these cookies responsibly.

We collect certain non-personally identifiable data through cookies to enhance our services and improve user experience. This information remains anonymized and does not personally identify you.

Cookies Used by Our Website:

Our cookies:

- Do not store any personally identifiable information, such as passwords.
- Do not access any other information stored on your device.
- Do not compromise the security of your device(s).
- Do allow us to provide a service through which users can access their trading account(s).
- Do allow us to monitor website traffic and user engagement.

- Do allow us to analyze how users arrive at our website (e.g., via search engine or email).
- Do enable the collection of technical information about website visitors, such as geographical location and browser type.
- Do allow us to display advertisements on third-party websites to individuals who have previously visited our website (e.g., banner ads), without identifying them personally.
- Do enable the display of content tailored to user preferences based on browsing behavior.
- Do allow our website to recall user settings and preferences for a better user experience.

Cross-Border Data Transfers

- In some cases, data collected through cookies may be transferred to and processed in countries outside the UAE. We ensure that such transfers are conducted in compliance with UAE data protection laws and that appropriate safeguards are in place to protect your data.

Cookie Management and Preferences

You have the option to accept or decline cookies when using our website. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser settings to decline them if you prefer. For more information on managing cookies, please visit aboutcookies.org. Please note that declining cookies may limit your ability to fully utilize our website's features. For more details on how we handle your data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.
